OVERVIEW

The largest city in England by area, Carlisle lies in the far northern corner of England, near the Scottish border, and is the urban capital of Cumbria and the beating heart of the Borderlands. A city linking two world heritage sites, Carlisle is a stone's throw from Hadrian's Wall, the northern frontier of a mighty empire that once covered the known world and the Lake District National Park where modern tourism was born, in the shimmering lakes and hushed mountains whose radiant beauty inspired poets and painters to turn nature into art. Explore dungeons and labyrinths at Carlisle's medieval castle, 900 -year-old cathedral and Cumbria's Museum of Military Life, all housed within the city's Historic Quarter. Britain's most impressive and important monument of Roman times, built by a force of 15,000 men in less than six years, it still evokes the feeling of standing on the edge of an empire.

Walk in the footsteps of the Romans and visit Birdoswald Roman Fort on Hadrian's Wall, next to one of the best-preserved sections of original Wall that stretches for nearly one mile to Gilsland. Enjoy the stunning far-reaching views over towards the Lake District Fells and take a moment to ponder life as one of the 1,000 Roman soldiers who lived there. Carlisle plays host to a packed calendar of events. Each Christmas the heart of the city is transformed into a winter wonderland with the annual Christmas Market. Experience the best fire and fireworks display in the North of England at Carlisle's Fireshow, and marvel at Carlisle 'City of Lights' son et Lumiere.

OVERVIEW

With its mix of great places to eat and drink, a castle and museums, impressive theatre and some fantastic events, Lancaster is a city which is well worth exploring for a group visit. Lancaster's history can be traced back thousands of years and that is no better discovered than by taking a guided tour of Lancaster Castle, which dominates the Lancaster skyline. Muse over fine exhibitions and collections at the city's museums, telling tales of Lancaster's past.

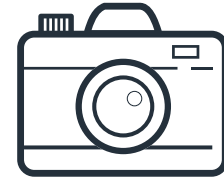

History runs through the quaint cobbled streets, where you'll find a coffee shop dating back to 1837, a restaurant housed in a 300-year-old former wine merchant's cellar and Lancaster's oldest pub which dates to the 15th century and is one of only two sites in Britain with an original gravity-fed cellar. There is also a huge selection of independent cafés and restaurants, many catering for groups and serving specialist foods.

Whenever you choose to visit, you'll be delighted with the evening entertainment available to group organisers with plays, musicals and shows at The Dukes and the Grand Theatre. The Dukes' annual Play in the Park is a large-scale walkabout performance in Williamson Park and is a must-see during the summer months. Lancaster Arts at Lancaster University also offers theatre and dance, concerts and music events and a public art gallery.

JUDGES' LODGINGS MUSEUM

Bringing the stories of Lancaster to life for everyone, through the city's oldest town house. Nestled below Lancaster Castle,

The Judges' Lodgings dates back nearly 400 years on a site that has been at the centre of Lancaster's history for nearly 2000 years. The current house was built around 1625 by Thomas Covell, Keeper of the Castle and famous for locking up the Pendle Witches during the infamous Lancashire Witch Trials. From 1826 the house became a lodgings for the travelling 'Red Judges' of the Assizes Courts. Dressed in their scarlet robes, the Judges decided the fate of murderers, forgers and highwaymen at Lancaster Castle.

Today the house is home to beautiful Georgian furniture by Gillows of Lancaster, elegant period rooms and the popular Museum of Childhood. Unfacilitated visit, guided tours, introductory talks.

Visitors can view these from rooftop restaurants and bars, punt and cruise on the river Thames and Cherwell or explore the city, it's heritage sites and streets, and oldest and renowned University of all on a walking tour. BILLESLEY MANOR HOTEL & SPA

A warm welcome awaits in historic Stratford-upon-Avon. Set in 11 acres of Warwickshire parkland, five miles from Stratford-upon-Avon, grade II listed Billesley Manor Hotel & Spa hosted Sir William Shakespeare in 1599 and the outcome was his comedy As You Like It.

From the time of the Norman Conquest the manor house at Billesley was one of a number of Midland properties belonging to the increasingly influential Trussell family. In 1327 Sir William Trussell was among those Parliamentarians who deposed King Edward II, going on to serve his son, the warrior King Edward III as soldier and diplomat. Billesley at that time consisted of a wooden manor house and nearby village, but in the middle of the fourteenth century the Black Death decimated the village, leaving just the manor occupied and a church. Foundations of the medieval village of Billesley can still be discerned in the fields to the east of the hotel.

Our historic venue will give your gathering a special touch turning moments into cherished memories.

Sustainability - The responsible stewardship of the natural environment has always been a priority for Castle Howard House, Grounds, and wider Estate. We are creating new habitats, changing how we farm, protecting woodlands, planting more trees, removing plastic from hedges, reducing our reliance on fossil fuels, stopping shooting, opening doors to scientists, and working to become somewhere that inspires our visitors, our staff, and our communities to continue to change the world.

CLIFFORD'S TOWER

Built to subdue the rebellious north by William the Conqueror, Clifford's Tower has been a royal mint, a medieval stronghold and a Civil War garrison. In 1190, one of the worst antisemitic massacres of the Middle Ages took place on the site of the tower when York's Jewish community were trapped there by a violent mob and many Jews chose to commit suicide rather than be murdered. Today, a new roof deck gives unrivalled views over York's historic skyline, with its medieval buildings and famous Minster. Inside, new walkways and staircases have opened up parts of the tower that have been off-limits for centuries, and immersive soundscapes and stories are bringing the tower's turbulent history to life like never before.

WHITBY ABBEY

Set high on the clifftops overlooking the sea, the ruins of Whitby Abbey tell only part of the site's incredible story. Communities have lived on this headland for over 3,000 years and it has long been an important Holy place and seat of power. Buried beneath the soaring arches what we see today are the remains of an earlier Anglo-Saxon monastery, whose tales of saints, poets and miracles still survive. Explore the visitor centre to discover the influence the Abbey had on writers and artists through the ages, from Turner to Tolkien. Adventurous visitors may wish to descend the famous 199 steps into the town below the Abbey, while others may prefer to enjoy the stunning views of the town and harbour from the top of the steps.

Every aspect of this ancient building - from the exquisite, handcrafted stone through to the unrivalled collection of medieval stained glass - tells the story of Jesus Christ. We invite you to discover this sacred place and the love of God at its heart, which has attracted people from across the globe for more than 1000 years.
